As notified in the announcement pursuant to section 23 paragraph 1 sentence 1 no. 3 of the German Securities Acquisition and Takeover Act (Wertpapiererwerbs- und Übernahmegesetz, "WpÜG") dated 7 January 2022, shareholders of Biotest AG, who have not accepted the Takeover Offer by the expiration of the Additional Acceptance Period, can still accept the Takeover Offer for Ordinary Shares in accordance with the provisions in the Offer Document by exercising the put right under section 39c WpÜG in conjunction with section 39a WpÜG within three months after expiration of the Additional Acceptance Period, i.e. until 21 April 2022, 24:00 hours (local time in Frankfurt am Main) / 18:00 hours (local time in New York).

The Takeover Offer and the contracts concluded with the Biotest Shareholders as a result of acceptance of the offer are subject to the Offer Conditions set forth in Clause 12.1 of the Offer Document, to the extent the Bidder has not previously validly waived the conditions.

The Offer Conditions set forth in Clause 12.1 lit. The Spanish antitrust authority (Comisión Nacional de los Mercados y la Competencia – "CNMC") gave a notification on 2 March 2022 that there is no risk for competition as a result of the planned merger and that, therefore, the merger is approved without any obligation to provide commitments. The transaction is accordingly no longer subject to any prohibition on closing in Spain under Art. 9.2 of the Spanish antitrust statute (Ley 15/2007, de 3 de julio, de Defensa de la Competencia) effective as of 2 March 2022.

The Takeover Offer and the contracts concluded with the Biotest Shareholders as a result of accepting the offer are still subject to the Offer Conditions under Clause 12.1 lit. The payments under the Offer can constitute a taxable event under applicable tax law, including the tax laws of the country of residence, the country of the registered office or the country of the normal place of abode of the Biotest shareholders. Each Biotest shareholder is strongly recommended to consult without undue delay with that shareholder's independent expert advisor with regard to the tax consequences of accepting the Offer. Neither GRIFOLS, S.A. nor the persons acting in concert with GRIFOLS, S.A. within the meaning of section 2 para. 5 sentence 1 and sentence 3 WpÜG nor their respective board members, management personnel or employees assume any responsibility for the tax effects or liabilities of any persons as a consequence of accepting the Offer.
